place: Monte da Moita Nova, Portugal

The instructor:

Birgit Beck-Broichsitter is a professional rider and instructor, whose main focus is classical dressage. Since 2007 she has been a licensed instructor of the „School of Légèreté“ and gives courses in Germany, Austria, England and Portugal. The instructions are in German or English.

About the „School of Légèreté“:

Phillippe Karl founded the School of Légèreté in 2004. The concept is focused on total respect for the horse. Use of any means of coercion is excluded. The concept of Légèreté is based on profound knowledge of the horse; anatomy, psychology, movement, balance and behaviour.

The course is for 8 riders. It is composed of 1 individual lessons of 60 min., 2 individual lessons of 45 min., 1 group lesson of 45 min. , a theory lecture (also for spectators), and a final feedback with hints for further schooling.

The instruction can be also in english.

Riders and horses of all levels of training are welcome.

The fee is 300 €,

Spectators are very welcome.
